

From: M. J. Bell

To: Mike Stiller-ArcelorMittal Dofasco

Date: February 18, 2010

Re: VOC'S FROM PREPAINTED STEEL

Baycoat's thin film coil coating systems, such as Perspectra Series™, 10000 Series and Metallic/Elite Series, when properly applied will not release any Volatile Organic Compounds (VOC) once cured in the coil coating process. The VOC's are completely removed from the coating during Baycoat's application process on the coil line.

Please feel free to contact me with any questions.

Marjorie Bell
Manager – Technical Services